MU Brass Band Success at Nabba Contest

The Mansfield University Brass Band

completed a tremendously successful trip to the North American Brass Band Championships in Fort Wayne, IN in March 2015. The band competed in the 3rd section of the contest and came home with the 2nd-place trophy, missing the championship by the narrowest of margins (3-tenths of a point out of a possible 300!). The test-piece (performed by all competing bands) for the 3rd section was Peter Graham's Dancing in the Park. The band also performed William Rimmer's The Cossack and Malcolm Arnold's Little Suite for Brass as their "own choice" pieces. Dylan Krall (tenor horn) and Marissa Pattison (euphonium) each participated, with great reviews and scores, in the solo portion of the contest. The band was equally well-represented in the small ensemble portion of the contest by a brass quintet, a tuba-euphonium quartet, and a percussion trio.

In preparation for the contest, the band presented a concert at Avon Lake High School, just west of Cleveland, OH. Former trumpet professor, Dr. Michael Galloway (now residing in the Cleveland area) was instrumental in setting up this concert. He, and his wife, Kay, were also generous enough to host the 30-piece band in their home for a reception following the concert.

Mansfield Music Alumni Alive and Well!

Terry Ochs '76

Keeping in touch with friends and colleagues after college is always a challenge; that roommate or best friend down the hall now lives across the country, the fellowship with fraternity/sorority brothers and sisters fades as the years after graduation accumulate, those wonderful performances, trips, and tours become distant, yet remain fond memories, and friends taken away from us all too soon. These are the thoughts we hold dear as we remember the best years of our life at Mansfield University, and reuniting with our friends brings a smile to everyone and allows us all to connect with our past and reconnect with the current version of our college friends.

In Eastern Pennsylvania distance and a full calendar keep many of us from visiting Mansfield for alumni events, so in 2000 several of us got together to share lunch, a beer or two, and entertain each other with the memories of our days at Mansfield. It was so much fun that we continued scheduling reunions and simplified the process by creating events in Facebook and inviting every music alumni we could find to join us, gradually growing the number of invitations as more alumni became aware of what we were doing.

Since we started meeting we have been joined by a wide variety of alumni coming from Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Allentown, Scranton, Binghamton, NY, and other locations too numerous to mention. We have met in Downingtown, Hershey, Harrisburg, Quakertown, Adamstown and Allentown to offer some variety of location and accommodate those traveling greater distances.

On Saturday, May 16, 2015 our latest and largest group of alumni gathered at Fegely's Brew Works in Allentown, PA and a great time was had by all. We even had the pleasure of being joined by one of the current music staff joining us for the first time; Christine Fish Moulton, Associate Professor of Flute at Mansfield University for the past eleven years, was able to stop by and meet everyone.

We generally schedule an event in the spring before Memorial Day weekend and another in the fall before Thanksgiving. We are looking to involve as many people as possible, so anyone interested in joining in on the fun can contact me either through Facebook or email at tkochs@comcast.net and I'll see you are added to the invitation list for the next event. Tentatively, the next event will occur on either November 14 or 21, 2015 and a location has yet to be determined. Mansfield University music alumni in Eastern Pennsylvania are alive and well and look forward to seeing more friends at our next event.

Music Scholarships

Music Scholarships

are essential in recruiting talented students. Competition for students requires significant investment and renewable awards. There have been many funds established since the first music scholarship in 1984 (Kruescher scholarships). Please consider contributing to an existing fund, establishing a new one, or giving to the general Music Scholarship Account.

Foundation funds (not endowed)

- Music Department
- Music Scholarship
- Steinway Fund

Endowed Scholarships given by or for FACULTY

GRACE AND MARGARET STEADMAN MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

Established by Margaret, Grace's daughter. Grace was music faculty and department chair from 1921-1939.

JOHN BAYNES AWARD

Given by John Baynes, 1940 MU graduate and MU music faculty from 1947-1979, including Music Department chair from 1966-75.

DAVID DICK AWARD

The award is given to "an outstanding junior in Music Ed or Performance for their senior year. Must have superior performing and/or conducting ability". This award is given in memory of Mr. David Dick, music faculty member from 1966 until he died suddenly at Christmas 1987.

BERTRAM FRANCIS SCHOLARSHIP

Bert Francis was music faculty from 1940-74, and continued to live in Mansfield until his death in 2004. This scholarship was established by Bertram Francis' four children in honor of his dedication to the music department at Mansfield University.

The children, Lois Bush '59, Jean Cloos '59, Kathleen Gearing '64, and Wayne Francis '71, are all MU alumni. In 1953 Mr. Francis founded the Concert Wind Ensemble, at that time only the second such ensemble in the nation.

DR. MICHAEL GALLOWAY SCHOLARSHIP

Dr. Galloway taught at MU from 1980-2013. He taught trumpet, jazz ensemble, improvisation, Jazz Arranging, Jazz History, music theory, orchestration, and Symphonic Band over the course of his career.

ED BROWN AWARD

This award is given in memory of Mr. Ed Brown, music theory faculty member 1971-98. It goes to a rising junior who had the highest grade average in the four-semester music theory sequence.

CHRISTINE LEWIS MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

Christine Lewis taught at Mansfield University from 1946-70.

JACK WILCOX AWARD

This award is given in memory of long-term music faculty member Jack Wilcox (taught voice, theater, and Mansfieldians from 1956-88).

EUGENE JONES AWARD

Established by his sister Helen Jones, given in memory of Eugene Jones, voice professor and choral director from 1956-1983. He taught voice, piano, chorus, and history, and lived in Mansfield until his death in 1997. He served in the Army between 1940-45. After returning from the war he continued his study at Oberlin, Juilliard, and Eastman.

RICHARD AND DORIS TALBOT MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

Richard Talbot was music faculty from 1967-91 and the director of the Mountie Marching Band from 71-80. Under his direction the band toured England twice. Mr. Talbot, a percussionist in the Navy before coming to MU, was also instrumental in beginning a Music Business degree, and Jazz Ensemble with faculty instruction.

MR. RICHARD KEMPER

Was a MU music faculty member from 1965-88. He taught oboe, bassoon, and music ed courses, and performed on bassoon. He and his wife, Marjorie (also music faculty member) live in the Pittsburgh area. Kurt Hider is a former student of Mr. Kemper's (oboist). They decided to endow this fund jointly.

ISABEL OCHSNER CHORAL ACCOMPANYING SCHOLARSHIP

Isabel Ochsner (1913-2005) was the mother of Dr. Peggy Dettwiler (music faculty 1990-present). This scholarship was established by Drs. Dettwiler and Jürgen Thym. Isabel Ochsner shared her many talents and interests with her many piano and organ students and served as pipe organist for 37 years at Trinity United Methodist Church in Freeport, Illinois.

For 157 years, students have been coming to Mansfield University with big dreams. Alumni, faculty, staff and friends have been helping make those dreams a reality. Whether an alumna/us, student, parent, or friend, you have a stake in Mansfield's future. That future is quite literally determined by loyal supporters who, year after year, provide the financial basis to assist students in achieving their dream of quality education.

Whether you wish to make an annual gift to support your department or scholarships at MU, a major/capital gift, establish an endowment or a planned gift, the professional staff at Mansfield University Foundation will guide you through the rewarding process of becoming an MU benefactor. Every single donor, no matter the size of gift, helps to transform MU students into the next generation of successful MU alumni around the world.

We wish to thank our loyal supporters for making dreams come true.

For more information visit us at www.mansfield.edu/support-mu or contact the Foundation at 570-662-4852.

FACULTY News

#1. Mrs. Katie Brennan died on June 25 #2. Dr. Nancy Boston Retired #3. Dr. Alissa Rose Welcomes Baby Nathan #4. Dr. Sheryl Monkelién-sabbatical

#5. Dr. Eun-Joo Kwak- Internationally Concert Artist #6. Dr. Peggy Dettwiler- Choral Workshop #7. Dr. Andrew Walters-Pan Imparts Form to Primal Matter

#1. It is with great sadness to report that Mrs. Katie Brennan died on June 25. Wife of Adam Brennan, and mother of Max, Ian, and Maggie will be greatly missed.

#2. Dr. Nancy Boston retired from Mansfield after 27 years, and has moved back home to Wisconsin.

#3. Dr. Alissa Rose, her husband John Shanchuk, and Erik (age 4) welcome their new family member, Nathan Rae Shanchuk, born on June 1, 2015.

#4. Dr. Sheryl Monkelién has been awarded a sabbatical for summers 2016 and 2017. She will spend eight weeks each summer in Edinburgh, Scotland studying with Scottish jazz educators, presenting vocal jazz workshops, and attending both the Edinburgh and Glasgow Jazz Festivals. At the end of the sabbatical in summer 2017, the hope is to take an Alumni MU Jazz Ensemble and Mansfieldians on a tour of Scotland, led by Monkelién and Michael Galloway. If any alums are interested and would like more information about the Scotland tour, please contact smonkeli@mansfield.edu. While in Scotland, Monkelién also plans to do some research into her Scottish heritage.

#5. Dr. Eun-Joo Kwak is the new piano professor replacing Dr. Nancy Boston. She's an internationally admired concert artist whose performances have led her to Europe, Russia, Asia, and throughout the United States, appearing at Dame Myra Hess Memorial Concerts in Chicago, American Landmark Festival in New York, Taipei National Recital Hall in Taiwan, and Seoul Arts Center in Korea. Winner of top prizes in prestigious competitions such as the Samick Piano Competition in Korea, International Beethoven Sonata Competition in Memphis, and Tokyo International Piano Duo Competition in Japan, she is also a recipient of the Scholarship of the Korean Embassy of the United States in Washington, D.C. and the Performing and Creative Artists Award from the Liberace Foundation in Las Vegas. A highly acclaimed concerto soloist, Kwak has performed with the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, Chicago Chamber Orchestra, KBS Symphony Orchestra of Korea, and many others. Her performances have been broadcast by KBS-FM in Korea, WFMT-Chicago, Christian Radio of Taiwan, and Wisconsin Public Radio, and recordings are available on the Northwestern Press, the Vienna Modern Masters labels, and Naxos Music Library. A sought-after clinician and adjudicator, she has given lectures and master classes in many music schools in the US, Asia, and Europe, and has judged for piano competitions in the US and abroad, including the PianoArts National Competition, the Music Teachers National Association's national competition finals, and the International Smetana Piano competition in the Czech Republic. Dr. Kwak earned her Bachelor of Music in Piano Performance from Seoul National University in Korea, Master of Music from Chicago Musical College of Roosevelt University, and Doctor of Music from Northwestern University.

#6. Dr. Peggy Dettwiler gave a two-day choral workshop as a part of Carnegie Hall's Music Education series. On Friday, she presented sessions to New York City school choral directors for the Department of Education and on Saturday, she presented a clinic with the Wadleigh Secondary School Choir from Harlem under the direction of Kimberly Walton for the attendees of the Carnegie Hall Weill Music Institute. In May, Peggy returned to NYC to work with the Harlem choir once more as well as another choir from Francis Lewis High School in Queens, NY, under the direction of Ejona Gmermeni.

In July, Peggy revived the high school choral camp, which included this year students also interested in strings and piano study. Jeff Jacobsen and Todd Ranney joined in leading the week's activities for 20 students from Pennsylvania, New York, and Ohio. Students seemed happy and hopeful that the camp will take place again next year!

#7. Dr. Andrew Walters music composition Pan Imparts Form to Primal Matter was performed at the 2015 Society for Electroacoustic Music in the United States National Convention at Virginia Tech University in Blacksburg, VA on March 28, 2015. In July of 2015, Dr. Walters was also part of the Mid Missouri Composers Symposium at the Osage Arts Center in Belle, MO. He was one of 11 composers that took part in a residency that included community outreach and presentations about the composer's music.

ALUMNI News

#1. John Bender (MU'69) Passed.

John Bender (MU '69), of Mountain Top, passed away in March 2015 at his residence.

He worked in the Mount Carmel School District for several years before moving to Mountain Top and taking a position in the Crestwood School District as an instrumental music teacher. John held that position for 29 years and was also the high school's band director. He recently was an instructor at the Bogusko Music Studio.

John was a member of the Wyoming Valley Presbyterian Church in Wilkes-Barre, performed with the Reading Buccaneers Bugle Corps, was a certified tournament of bands judge for 30 years and was an avid railroad enthusiast.

ENSEMBLE & CLUB News

#1. Horn Club Participated in the 2015 Horn Workshop

The Mansfield University Horn Club participated in the 2015 Southeast Horn Workshop at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, LA. Students participated in masterclasses and competitions, and had the opportunity to visit many vendors and instrument and music dealers. Horn professor Rebecca Dodson-Webster was invited to perform, and to be the lead judge in the collegiate solo competition.

Three horn graduates will be attending prestigious graduate programs pursuing horn performance degrees this fall. They are Diana Allan (Mannes), Tom Fish (Louisiana State University), and Sara Petokas (Eastman School of Music).

#2. The Student Run Organization, Steadman Studio

The student run organization, Steadman Studios, has been recording several groups from the Mansfield University community. The groups Sky Transit and Tiny Thoughts, winners of Steadman Studios' first talent show competition, are recording their first songs in the studio. The studio also was used to record the Mansfield University Concert Wind Ensemble, the Mansfield University Concert Choir, the Mansfield University Festival Chorus, and the Mansfield University Symphony Orchestra.

Members from Steadman Studios went to the 2015 LAUNCH conference in Lancaster, PA. The conference gave Music Technology and Music Business students a unique opportunity to meet music industry professionals through various panels and workshops.

Endowed Scholarships given by or for ALUMNI & given by or for FRIENDS

HOWARD AND OLYNDA CHAFFEE SMITH AWARD

This award is given by long-time supporters of Mansfield University and the music department. Howard Smith has been a member of the MU Council of Trustees and Mrs. Olynda Smith is an MU grad ('57)

KRUESCHER SCHOLARSHIPS

Established in 1984 by Jean Kreuscher (MU 1906), was one of the first music scholarships at Mansfield University

RICHARD AND ESTHER PURVIS COOK SCHOLARSHIP

Given by Richard (MU '54) and Esther (MU '53). Mrs. Cook was a music major. They still live in Elmira NY.

ADA MAE SAXTON

('MU '53) is a member of the MU Council of Trustees. Her daughter, Judy (MU '86) is probably one of our most successful graduates (trumpet). Ada Mae established this award many years ago to help support music students.

RHODA BARTELL MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

The award is given to a double reed player. This award is given (by her parents) in memory of Rhoda Bartell (1948-67), a bassoon major in the class of 1968, who died before she was able to finish her degree.

ROBERT GAROFALO

(MU '60) went on to a long and distinguished conducting career in the music department at Catholic University in Washington D.C.

LL LEE MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

Lew (MU '61) and Linda (MU '62) Lee. Lew is a long-serving member on the MU Council of Trustees, they both have been on several Concert Choir European Tours.

ALEXANDER SIDOROWICZ SCHOLARSHIP

Alex (MU '69, clarinet) was Dean of Fine Arts at Towson University when he was killed in a car accident in 1996. The scholarship was established by his widow Ruth so that his name will forever be associated with his alma mater and his love for music.

MRS. CARLA STEBBINS

Has many connections to Mansfield. She was married to music faculty member David Dick until he died in 1987; after that she worked in the MU development office; and she also conducted the Mansfield Men's Chorus for a number of years. The Mansfield Men's Chorus established this award in her honor when she retired as their director and moved to Corning.

RICHARD SWARTZ AWARD

Founded in memory of Richard Swartz ('81), a bassoon major, the award is given to an outstanding double reed major.

CARL RUCK MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

($400 applied to next year's bill). Carl Ruck (MU '80) was a piano and organ major. He went on to a long and distinguished career in Washington DC as an educational advisor.

KATHRYN MCINROY SMITH (1905) AND ALICE SMITH BAILEY (1932) SCHOLARSHIP

Established by Lt. Col. (Ret.) Arden D. Smith in honor of his mother and sister, both music majors at Mansfield.

DEAN AND ELIZABETH PHILLIPS SCHOLARSHIP

Given by their daughter Sara ('74).

MICHAEL AND PEGGY LANE MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

Established by Dr. Lane, a former Provost at Mansfield. They both sang in Festival Chorus for several years.

DR. NANCY COOLIDGE AWARD

Established by Dr. Coolidge, a former Dean at Mansfield. She sang in Festival Chorus for several years, still lives in Mansfield, and often attends concerts.

JOE AND SUSAN MCCONNELL

Have been long-time supporters of Mansfield Music. Joe's career was selling insurance in Ithaca NY, but always maintained a farm just 5 miles from Mansfield. When he retired they moved to the farm. Joe played French horn in wind ensemble when we were short probably 15 years ago, and he played piano in jazz band when needed. Joe and Susan established this scholarship in honor of their daughter, Louise, who died in the prime of her life from breast cancer probably 30 years ago. Susan died in 2013, and Joe lives in a long-term care facility downstate, he's in his 90s.

BERNICE (BEA) KLINGAMAN

Was the ultimate music teacher. While learning the Kodaly method she introduced the philosophy to all the areas and we developed the SMILE program (Sensory Motor Integrated Learning Experience). With the assistance of classroom teaching staff, SMILE became a pre-reading program with the arts contributing daily to child development. Bea served as Elementary Curricular Chairperson for the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association. Her expertise and teaching style was in demand locally and nationally as a clinician.

OLE BULL (1810-1880)

One of Norway's most famous musicians (a violinist and composer). He visited the US many times, with great success and purchased land in Potter County. Inez Bull (1920-2010) was a descendant of Ole, and a pianist at Julliard. The Spunky Norwegian Foundation is dedicated to carry on the legacy of Ole & Inez Bull, through music festivals and scholarships (Ole, string; & Inez, piano)

New Basketball Band

The Mountie Sound Machine is being re-invented for the 2015-16 Men's & Women's home basketball games. The new band will consist primarily of saxophones (quartets of soprano, alto, tenor, & bari) from Joe Murphy's studio, drum-set, and voices. The goal is to decrease the number of students in the core ensemble (to minimize conflicts between game schedules and academic/ensemble commitments) and to increase the audience participation in form of sing-a-long vocals (more Woolly Bully & Hey, Baby!). The music department and saxophone studio is excited about the possibilities of creating something truly unique and exciting!

Alumni of the basketball pep band are encouraged to attend a Mountie Sound Machine Reunion at the men's & women's games against Kutztown on Saturday, February 20, 2015. The full alumni band will rehearse in Butler Music Center at 10:00am. The women's game is scheduled for a 1:00pm tip-off, followed by the men's game at 3:00pm. Lunch and event t-shirts will be available. Don't miss this opportunity to see some old friends, support MU Athletics, and welcome Kutztown men's basketball coach Bernie Driscoll back to his favorite PSAC gymnasium!
